MEADOWBROOK POINTE WELCOMES PRIME TIME COMEDIAN CAROL LEIFER

Night of Comedy to Benefit the American Cancer Society

WESTBURY, N.Y. (September 20, 2007) – Meadowbrook Pointe Athletic Club & Spa, the luxury community for active adults age 55 and over, proudly presents a Night of Comedy starring Carol Leifer on Saturday, September 29.

The Emmy-nominated writer for Seinfeld, The Larry Sanders Show and Saturday Night Live and frequent guest on The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and Late Night with David Letterman, will take the stage in the ballroom at Meadowbrook Pointe's grand 25,000 square foot clubhouse following an opening performance from clever Comedian Cathy Ladman at 7:30 p.m. Carol Leifer recently donated $10,200 to the American Humane Society to fight animal cruelty by purchasing the notes from Michael Vick's August 27th press conference apology. Cathy Ladman, known as one of the country's top comedians awarded the American Comedy Award for Best Female Stand Up Comic, was most recently one of three finalists in Nick at Nite's "Funniest Mom in America" contest.

"We are thrilled to bring the comic genius of both Carol Leifer and Cathy Ladman to Meadowbrook Pointe," said Michael Dubb, president of The Beechwood Organization. "With both talented ladies having starred in their own comedy cable specials and heralded for their laugh-a-minute monologues and comedic script writing, we're sure this will be an unforgettable and fun-filled evening."

Tickets are $25.00 per person (21 and over please) and reservations are recommended. All ticket proceeds will benefit the American Cancer Society. For more information, please call (516) 222-0800.
